Description Photograph of the facade of the YMCA building in Ansonia, Connecticut, situated on a sloping street. There are three doorways with arches above them. On the pediment above the left-hand door is the word "MEN," and on the pediment above the right-hand door is the word "BOYS." The center pediment contains the YMCA triangle logo, with the words "MIND," "BODY," and "SPIRIT" inscribed above the three sides of the triangle. There is a small sign at street level below the center door that advertises a membership campaign.
