Description Three-quarter length studio portrait of Henry Barrett Learned (1868-1931) as an adult. He is sitting at an angle in a chair and is looking at the camera.

He is resting his chin on one hand, with his elbow propped on the arm of the chair. He is grasping the other arm with his other hand, and that elbow is cocked out to the side. Henry is wearing a white collared shirt with a striped string bow tie under a vest and matching jacket, with pinstripe pants. He is also wearing pince-nez spectacles and a pocket watch.
