

Basic Detail Report

Title Hood or Bonnet

Date about 1870s

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-quilted silk with glass beads, beaver fur, and unidentified wadding

Description Brown silk hood or bonnet, machine-quilted with a design of flowers on each side. Central strip from top to back of head is quilted in a leafy vine design. The seams are covered with a strip of black beadwork. There is a short skirt to cover the neck around the base. The hood is edged with light brown beaver fur.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 10 3/4 x 10 x 10 1/2in.
(27.3 x 25.4 x 26.7cm)