Description Wood frame commercial buildings with awnings and louvered shutters at the corner of Main Street and Charter Oak Avenue. A few children, men, and women, some with baby carriages shaded with parasols, are on the sidewalk, and crossing the street. Most are wearing hats. Several signs are visible on the buildings: "100 DODGE & BREWER 100" "MEAT and FISH MARKET" "GROCERIES and PROVISIONS." "BALLANTINE & SONS. ALE and PORTER." On the striped awning: "F. E. DAY" Other signs read: "96 MELROSE & KEANE 9[6]" "WINES MELROSE & KEANE. LIQUORS". In the store windows some boxes are visible, on sidewalk crates are piled up near the door, some read: "BASS ALE / and / GUINNESS STOUT / ON DRAUGHT". There is a utility pole on the corner,
