

Title Woman's Drawers

Date about 1920

Primary Maker Mildred A. Strickland

Medium Hand-stitched cotton with machine-embroidery and a shell button Description Woman's drawers of white cotton, with short legs made with a 4 1/2-inch-deep ruffle. The ruffle is machine-embroidered along the edge with a floral design and scallops. The legs are gathered into the 1 1/2-inch-wide waistband, which fastens on each side with a single shell button (one button is missing). The openings on the sides are created with 7/8-inch-wide plackets.
