

Basic Detail Report

Title Doll's Shoes

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Blanche Parmelee

Medium Machine-stitched leather, unidentified non-ferrous metal buckles, wooden heels, cardstock insoles, and silk ribbon

Description White leather doll shoes. The uppers are cut in one piece, with a seam at the center back. The straps tie over the foot with a very pale gray silk ribbon. The throatline is square and is ornamented at the top with a faceted silver-toned metal buckle over a white leather faux bow. The knock-on heels are wood painted black. The soles are brown leather and the insoles are heavyweight paper.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 1 3/4 x 1 3/8 x 3in. (4.4 x 3.5 x 7.6cm)