

Basic Detail Report

Title Woman's Nightgown

Date about 1880-1890

Primary Maker Geer family

Medium Machine-stitched cotton and mother of pearl buttons

Basic Detail Report

Description Woman's white cotton nightgown with a yoke and high, round neckline finished with a ruffle of eyelet embroidery. The front yoke is decorated with vertical rows of pintucking and an insertion of eyelet embroidery. The back yoke is plain. A seventeen-inch long button placket forms the opening at center front. It fastens with three small mother of pearl buttons. The long sleeves are slightly gathered into the armscye and slightly gathered at the wrist into a narrow bias band edged with an eyelet ruffle. The front and back panels of the nightgown are gathered into the yoke. The hem is 1 3/8-inch deep.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (center back length x width across shoulders):

53 x 14in. (134.6 x 35.6cm)