of the guard is slightly turned up, and the quillon terminates at the back of the blade in a scrolling disc finial. The knuckle bow is decorated with floral designs along the outside and is pierced at the bottom for a sword knot. The knuckle bow connects to the pommel at the base, which is of the Phrygian helmet pattern cast with leaf designs along the outside edges and bottom edge. The handle is grooved wood wrapped in shagreen (sharkskin), and then wrapped with coiled wire between the grooves. The scabbard is japanned steel with brass bands and carrying rings. The top band has a single carrying ring and is decorated with floral decorations along the center part of the band that connects to the carrying ring; below that, engraved above the carrying ring band it reads: " Presented to / Col. H.C. Demming / 12th Regt. Conn Vols. / by his friend / David Clarke". Stamped on the reverse side of the top band is: "AMES MFG. CO. / CHICOPEE / MASS". The center band is almost identical to the top band with floral designs in the place of the engraved top section. The tip has a similar design along the sides, with the center having an applied piece of brass in a scrolling floral design.
