Title Flight into Egypt

Date about 1835

Medium Lithography; printer's ink on thin wove paper
