Title Yachting Blouse

Date about 1905-1925

Primary Maker Helen C. St. John

Medium Machine-stitched cotton, with bone buttons.

Description Woman's yachting blouse of heavy, twill-woven white cotton ("duck"). The pull-over blouse has a sailor collar with V-shaped neckline; set inside the neckline is a panel which opens at the center front and fastens with two bone buttons. There is a patch pocket with a pointed bottom stitched over the proper left breast. The bottom of the blouse is cut straight; the side seams are not vented. The long sleeves are stitched smoothly into the armscye and taper slightly to the cuff, which fastens with a single bone button. The seams are flat-felled.
