MARRIAGE IN CANA.

Title Marriage in Cana.

Date 1852-1853

Primary Maker Elijah Chapman Kellogg

Medium Lithography; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Eleven people are seated at a long table covered with a tablecloth. A woman at the left, who wears a wreath and veil, appears to be a bride. A man seated at the far right wearing a wreath of leaves appears to be the groom. A young man offers him a goblet. A man with long hair and a beard and mustache stands in the foreground, pointing with his right hand towards a large jug or ewer. He wears a robe and cloak and is barefoot. Other men, probably servants, kneel at the left and right. They wear short tunics. The man at the right lifts a large jug or amphora. Other attendants with jugs are behind the table. Six musicians are on a balcony in the right background. Their instruments include a guitar and a recorder or flute. Large, cracked stone columns frame a perspective view of a large stone building with additional columns. A woman descends a staircase between the columns carrying a ewer in her left arm and balancing a basket on her head with her right hand. Another figure behind her is carrying a tray.
