the right background, a man and a dog cross a rustic bridge over a broad stream.

A rustic fence lines the road or path that leads into the woods at the far right.
