Title Christ Blessing Little Children.

Date 1832-1840

Medium Lithography; printer's ink on wove paper
