

Basic Detail Report

Title St. Thomas the Apostle School, West Hartford

Date 1936

Primary Maker John J. McMahon

Medium Drawings, blueprints; blue, red and black pencil on paper, cyanotype on paper

Description Drawings include plans for foundation, basement, first floor, second floor, main roof, plot and a day's notes on construction with dimension sketching. Also details of column footings, wall footings, assembly hall vent ducts, basement floor and piping hung on first floor ceiling concealed by suspended ceiling. Also sections of stage and boiler room, ramp and book storage, teacher's toilet, assembly hall, "A-A" and "B-B". Plans include play room, dressing rooms, janitor, wash sinks, auditorium, classrooms, stage, existing church building, new school building, key of door types, material key, abbreviation symbols key, column placement, red pencil notes, pipe space, boiler room, basement kitchen, piping fixtures, switchboard room, boys / girls play space, storage space, library, assembly hall, hatchways, fans, water supply fixtures key, ceiling heights and pipe symbols. Details show membrane water proofing basement floor, acoustics and gypsum block. Sections show wire doors, Keene's cement and all rooms. Scales for drawings are  $1/16" = 1'0"$ ,  $1" = 32'0"$ , and  $1/8" = 1'0"$ .

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 21 x 24 5/8in. (53.3 x 62.5cm)