Title Bud Vase

Date about 1935

Medium Mold-formed porcelain with a green glaze

Description Small, porcelain bud vase with a green glaze. The vase has a crescent-shaped footprint, vertical sides, and two internal dividers creating three spaces for flower stems. The two dividers are shaped like semi-circles. The holes for flower stems are narrow at the bottom, then swell about a third of the way up the vase. There is one very small chip in the rim of the bud vase.
