

Basic Detail Report

Title Trophy

Date 1961

Medium Sheet pewter

Description Pewter trophy dish with a flaring rim and undulating rim, undulating sides, and a 4 3/4-inch diameter well. The dish has a pair of handles, each consisting of a pair of arches; the interior side of each arch ends in a pair of berries. The center of the well has an applied boss with an undulating edge. The boss has the raised words "COUNTRY CLUB OF FAIRFIELD" above the image of a man golfing, above the date "1961" inside a banner. Above the boss is engraved "MIXED MEMBER-MEMBER". Below the boss is engraved "RUNNER-UP". There are two dents in the rim of the trophy dish, and several light scratches and smaller dents throughout.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width including handles x depth): 2 x 11 1/16 x 9 1/4in. (5.1 x 28.1 x 23.5cm)