

Basic Detail Report

Title Their Backs Laid the Foundation.

Date 2000

Medium Drawings; pencil on cardboard

Description Three men wearing broad-brimmed hats and work clothes kneel on the ground in the foreground. Their hands cup a pumpkin, watermelons, eggplants. A wooden box contains round fruits or vegetables and the artist's signature. The heads of other workers are visible behind these three men. Above their heads, a large seedling sprouts from a large seed and fruits are arranged as if on a table. The lower face and lips of a large figure are visible beneath clouds.

A dressed stone wall and a smokestack are in the background.
