are the initials "SC" inside an oval cartouche of leaves on a vine. These two areas are surrounded by an undulating vine of flowers, fruits and leaves on a vine. This vine is flanked by a narrow border of small leaves on a straight vine. Around the sides and bottom of the bed covering is a wide border of flowers, fruits and leaves on undulating vines that are joined at the bottom center. Each edge of the bed covering has a narrow border of long leaves on an undulating vine. The sides and bottom edges of the bedcovering have a knotted net edging with fringe. The plain-woven linen ground is constructed of three panels that are hand-stitched together; these are joined selvedge to selvedge. The top and bottom edges of the ground are double-turned with a narrow hem. The candlewick design is formed with a running stitch. Condition: The ground has yellowed and stained in specific locations, at the center and sides of the bedcovering. The bed covering has scattered small holes and small stains.
