

Basic Detail Report

Title Views of Essex, Connecticut

Date 1890-1910

Primary Maker Clarence Bushnell

Medium Photography; gelatin silver prints, cyanotypes, and albumen prints on cardboard in photograph album.

Description Photograph album contains photographs of Essex, Connecticut.

Images included in photograph album are members of the Ivoryton Wheel Club standing on the deck of their clubhouse. Two photographs of the Union "Live and Let Live" celebration, bicycle parades, tree-lined residential streets, churches, bridges, farms and farm animals, family pets, railroad trains, bridges, and railroad engines. There are several photographs of factories and mills including the Comstock, Cheney & Company, manufacturers of ivory goods. Scenes along the Connecticut River include several unidentified waterfalls, rapids, and dams. There are also several images of the Lynde Point Lighthouse, sailboats and barges along the Connecticut River, Steamboat Landing, and the Dauntless at Ely's Landing in Essex. There are also images of people rowing and canoeing along the Connecticut River. Many of the images are birdseye views of Essex which include the village, the Connecticut River, meadows, farms, and fields. Some images include winter scenes.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Other (Image): 5 1/2 x 8 1/4in. (14 x 21cm) and smaller Sheet: 14 x 16in. (35.6 x 40.6cm) Other (Album): 14 1/2 x 17 1/4 x 3/4in. (36.8 x 43.8 x 1.9cm)