Title A Map of Connecticut

Date about 1813

Primary Maker Polly Ludington

Medium Drawing; black ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description A map of the state of Connecticut, divided into eight counties, with the border of Massachusetts to the north, Rhode Island to the east, the Long Island Sound to the south, and New York to the west. The legend in the top left provides explanations for the depictions of cities, court houses, meeting houses, roads, mountains and "remarkable hills," and county lines. Towns, cities, rivers, and islands are labeled. Meeting houses and court houses are represented by small building symbols. Elevation is conveyed with hachure marks.
