

NEPTUNE TWINE MILLS
TOWN OF EAST HADDAM

MOODUS
TOWN OF EAST HADDAM

The map depicts the Moodus River flowing through the town, with numerous property lots and buildings labeled. Key features include the Moodus River, Moodus Point, and the Moodus River Bridge. The map is oriented with North at the top, indicated by a compass rose. The title block at the top left contains the text 'NEPTUNE TWINE MILLS' and 'TOWN OF EAST HADDAM'. The title block at the top right contains the text 'MOODUS' and 'TOWN OF EAST HADDAM'. The map is a detailed historical document showing the layout of the town and its surrounding areas.

Date 1874

Basic Detail Report

Primary Maker F. W. Beers & Co.

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of Moodus in the town of East Haddam, Connecticut, depicting the Moodus River and the various mills and companies along it, including the Moodus Manufacturing Company and twine, shingle, grist and saw mills. Roads are shown but not labeled, and lots of land are depicted with the owner or occupant's name and shaded rectangles representing buildings. A school, a cemetery, a Baptist church, Catholic church and a Methodist Episcopal church are shown in green. At the top left is an inset map of Neptune Twine Mills in East Haddam, along the Moodus River. The mill buildings are depicting, as are the buildings of a coffin trimming factory and a cotton factory.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 22 3/8 x 14 5/8in. (56.8 x 37.1cm) Sheet (height x width): 22 7/8 x 14 3/4in. (58.1 x 37.5cm)