Title Carte Geographique, Statistique et Historique du Connecticut

Date probably 1825

Medium Engraving; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of Connecticut, with Massachusetts to the north, Rhode Island to the east, Long Island and the Long Island Sound to the south, and New York to the west. The state is divided into counties that are labeled and delineated with broken solid lines, while towns are also labeled and delineated with dotted lines. Elevation is conveyed with hachure marks, and other natural features include rivers, ponds, islands, harbors, and points. The map is surrounded by text blocks in French that describe Connecticut's physical features, population distribution, climate, higher education, government, and history.
