

Basic Detail Report

Title Views of Rockville and Vicinity

Date 1860-1910

Primary Maker George M. Bolton

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mounts

Description Views by Rockville photographers include a view of the Rockville Bank, a church, a business block, a stone factory building under construction, and the Stafford Springs Hotel. Boston & Albany Railroad cars are in the foreground of the photograph of the hotel. One photograph shows spectators at the Rockville Fair watching a performance by acrobats. Part of the John S. Craig Collection.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 1/4 x 3 1/8in. (8.3 x 7.9 cm) or smaller Sheet (height x width): 3 1/4 x 3 1/8in. (8.3 x 7.9cm) or smaller

Mount (height x width): 3 7/16 x 6 15/16in. (8.7 x 17.6cm) or smaller