

Basic Detail Report

Title Child Hanging Upside Down From Trapeze Bar

Date about 1915

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description View of a child, probably a boy, hanging upside down from a trapeze bar. The bar is suspended by rope. The boy is holding the bar with both hands and has his feet hooked around the ropes on each end. There is a pile of lumber on the ground just behind him, in front of a tree. There is a one-story building to the left and another small building in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 2 1/8 × 2 5/8in. (5.4 × 6.7cm)

Sheet (height x width): 2 3/8 × 2 3/4in. (6 × 7cm)