window in the middle of the wall, between bookshelves. There is a small table to the left of it, in the corner, which has a lamp on it. There are one or two chairs near the table and an armchair in front of the window. To the right, in front of a bookshelf, there is a man sitting in another chair reading a book that is in his lap. He appears to have a pipe in his mouth. There are one or two chairs in the foreground, sitting against the wall to the left.
