Title Crew Boat and Rowers in Water

Date 1916-1919

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description View of a crew boat, or scull, in the water. There are eight young men in the boat, facing away from the camera and rowing. The one furthest away is wearing a shirt or sweater that says "SPS" on the back, for St. Paul's School. A ninth man, the coxswain, sits in front of him at the far end of the boat and faces towards the camera. Part of a dock is visible in the upper left corner of the image.
