

Basic Detail Report

Title North Eastern view of Fort Hill in Groton.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Fort Hill rises steeply in the background, covered with trees except for a clearing at the top where the Baptist Church and the house of Mr. Burrows, an aged Baptist clergyman, may be seen. A rocky clearing is in the foreground. A road winds up the hill in the right. Fort Hill was the site of the Fort of the Pequot leader Sassacus.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 5/16in. (8 x 11cm)