

Basic Detail Report

Title Groton Monument and Fort Griswold.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A broad road ascends a steep hill towards the Groton Monument, which is in the form of an obelisk. On the right are the buildings of Fort Griswold.

The hillside is divided into fields by stone walls. Two sailing vessels are on the Thames River in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 3 15/16in. (9 x 10cm)