

Basic Detail Report

Title Birthplace of David Brainerd, Haddam.

Date probably 1836

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description View across a rocky field towards the Connecticut River. A man in a top hat, possibly a self-portrait of the artist sketching, stands in the foreground.

In the middle ground sailing vessels are on the Connecticut River. The foundation of the Brainerd house is to the right. The Rev. David Brainerd was a missionary to Native Americans, first in New York State and later in New Jersey.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 5/16in. (8 x 11cm)