

Basic Detail Report

Title North Eastern view St. Andrews Church Kent.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Small stone gothic church with a square tower, located at the crossroads. Barber in his text identifies it as an Episcopal Church. A picket fence is in the left foreground, a small house is across the road, and a mountain looms in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 5 1/2in. (9 x 14cm)