

Basic Detail Report

Title Southport.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Distant view of Southport across the Mill River. The most prominent building is the Congregational Church, to its left are the Academy and the Southport Bank. Two sloops are at a landing in the center. The small building at the extreme right is a flourmill with a spire of the Episcopal Church in Fairfield beyond.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 5/16in. (8 x 11cm)