

Basic Detail Report

Title South West view of Collinsville, Canton Conn.

Date 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description View of Collinsville from the west side of the Farmington River. In the foreground a man sits on a rock sketching, probably a self-portrait of the artist.

Some houses of the workmen are in the foreground to the left. The large industrial buildings of the Collins and Company Ax Factory and additional houses are on the far side of the river. Hills rise steeply in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 15/16 x 5 1/2in. (10 x 14cm)