

Basic Detail Report

Title P. Francis family, Newington.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Fifteen Francis family members and dog, in front of Greek Revival house in Newington? Man holds two horses. Seated man and woman surrounded by three girls and five boys. One girl wears plaid and the other what appears to be lace on her dress. To the right is group of seated man and woman with infant and a woman standing. Front door with sidelights is to the right of the facade with porch roof supported by fluted columns. A large ell to rear and right of house also has a porch with open support columns reminiscent of Chippendale Revival fretwork. House has long dirt driveway to right of house.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)