Title Trolleys on Main Street, Hartford, Connecticut

Date about 1935

Medium Photography; gelatin silver prints on paper

Description Views of Main Street, Hartford, Connecticut, most of them taken from an elevated viewpoint from a position on the east side of the street just north of the Old State House. Trolley cars, trolley tracks, and overhead trolley wires appear in all of the photographs, as well as pedestrian and automobile traffic. The Phoenix National Bank is at the right of most photographs; the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company building and the trees in front of the Old State House are at the left. The spire of the Center Congregational Church is in the background. Some photographs include billboards advertising Alderman Drug, Coca Cola, and Socony Gasoline. Businesses include the A. S. Beck Shop and Cut-Rate Perfumers. Some photographs include policemen directing traffic.
