Title Women Fishing at Balls Pond

Date 1885

Primary Maker N. T. Bulkley

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Six women and an elderly bearded man holding a rake pose beside a millpond. Two of the women hold fishing poles. Two small girls accompany them, one wearing a pinafore and one sitting in a wheelbarrow. A small child appears to be eating something. There is a vine-covered wall in the left background. A ladder leans against a tree in the right background, in front of a vertical-boarded mill building. A rowboat is in the pond.
