

Basic Detail Report

Title Second relief, Columbia camping party

Date 1895

Primary Maker Edward B. Owen

Medium Photography; cyanotype on paper

Description Two young women and three young men are outside in a wooded area. Some of them wear hats. Crates are stacked for use as a table. On them are various items, including a bowl and broken eggshells. The girl on the right appears to be washing dishes in a small metal tub. Behind the crates is the metal chimney of a camp stove. One man holds a knife. Two buckets are on the ground at right.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 3/4 x 7 7/8in. (12 x 20cm)