

Basic Detail Report

Title Collapse of house, 60 Flower Street, Hartford, May 12, 1912

Date 1912

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Three-story brick residential building with louvered shutters and a small wooden porch with a high stoop. The corner of the first and second stories has collapsed in a pile of rubble, exposing beams and part of the interior. The sidewalk is blocked by boards resting on barrels. A wheelbarrow is at the left.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 8 11/16 x 7 7/8in. (22 x 20cm)