Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description View of partially collapsed five-story building. Piles of rubble and debris are on the ground. Several men, some of them in uniform, stand on the street. The men in uniform are probably members of the Connecticut National Guard. Utility poles, wires, and a street light are in the foreground. Several brick buildings and a church steeple, probably the First Methodist Episcopal Church, are in the background. A sign reads: "Monuments."
