

Basic Detail Report

Title Unidentified quarry, Meriden vicinity

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Burton H. Hubbell

Medium Photography; cyanotype on paper on cardboard mount

Basic Detail Report

Description Five men stand at the top edge of a stone quarry, probably a brownstone quarry. Some wear overalls. Above them, a derrick with a block and tackle appears to be attached to a large container of broken stones. Trees are in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 8 1/4 x 6 5/16in. (21 x 16cm)