

Basic Detail Report

Title Collapse of the Deming house, 99 Church Street, Hartford, May

1888

Date 1888

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Facade of a two-story brick house with a portico, a balustrade on the roof and louvered shutters. The left corner of the building has collapsed, revealing the interior. A chair is at the corner of the second floor. Wallpaper is on the wall of a first-floor room. An iron fence is in front of the building.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 1/2in. (13 x 19cm)