

Basic Detail Report

Title Stolen Fruit

Date before 1820

Medium Oil on canvas

Description [Picture shows a man in a green dressing gown and blue hat sitting in a red stuffed chair. Has white scarf around neck and bandaged leg and foot lie on stool, red slipper on right foot. At extreme left is a table covered with green cloth on which are a number of books. Background of picture is paneling with two globes in high recess in center. Open door at right. In center foreground two boys stand, one dressed in green the other in red, the one in green holds a black hat under his arm. Both have wide white ruffled collars. At right a man, from his dress evidently a farmer, kneels on one knee and in front of him is a hat filled with apples and a bag from which he has emptied more apples. His coat and pants are light colored. His hat is on the floor beside him. Two other boys wearing dark suits with wide white ruffled collars are looking in through the open door. Shiny black frame with gilt molding.]

Dimensions Stretcher (height x width): 38 1/2 x 45in. (97.8 x 114.3cm)