

Basic Detail Report

Title Triptic of Horace Well's life

Date 1906

Primary Maker Horace Wells

Medium Print on paper

Description Reduced reproduction of the triptic painted for Dr. Luis Subirana of Madrid by the famous artist Cecilio Pla on the life of the glorious discoverer of the anesthesia. First painting is of Wells in a lecture hall; the second is of Wells dead in the bathtub; and the third is of Wells outside a columned building with onlookers laughing at him.

Dimensions Frame (Height x Width): 16 5/16 x 27 3/4 x 3/4in. (41.4 x 70.5 x 1.9cm)