

Basic Detail Report

Title Gold-Plated Tie Clips

Date about 1970

Medium gold-plated metal

Description Eleven gold-plated tie clips owned by Bill Savitt and retailed by Savitt Jewelers in Hartford, Conn. (.1837) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with the letters: "P.O.M.G.," which stands for "Peace of Mind Guaranteed," engraved into the front. (.1838) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with an applied decoration in the shape of a woman diver. (.1839) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with a round applied decoration decorated with enamel paint and the words "Rotary International." (.1840) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with applied decoration in the shape of a baseball glove with a "pearl" baseball. (.1841) duplicate of (.1839) (.1842) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with no decoration. (.1843) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with applied decoration in red, white, and blue enamel paint with "K of C" [Knights of Columbus]. (.1844) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with applied enamel decoration with Masonic symbols (Shriners). (.1845) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with applied decoration on a disk outlined in blue and white enamel paint: "K/ KIWANIS/ INTERNATIONAL." (.1846) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with a runner on the front and "[19]63" engraved on the front. (.1847) Rectangular-shaped, gold-plated tie clip with a dollar sign outlined in blue enamel paint and the word "SECURITY."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length): 1 3/4in. (4.4cm)