

Basic Detail Report

Title Fife & Drum and Muster buttons

Date 1930-1979

Medium plastic; aluminum

Description Buttons for Fife and Drum Corps' and military musters. (.155) Pin-back button for the Pound Ridge Colonial Fyfe and Drum Corps in 1976. Button has a blue background with white text. In the center is a green tree with thirteen stars surrounding the trunk. (.156) Pin-back button for the Deep River Ancient Muster in 1974. Button has a white background with black text. In the center is a military hat, crossed drumsticks, and a flute. (.157) Pin-back button for the Hubbard Park Bicentennial Skirmish. Button has a white background with red text. In the center is a man in a military uniform holding a musket. (.158) Pin-back button for the Conn. Yanks in Bristol, Conn. Button has a white background with blue and gold text. In the center is a military cap. (.159) Pin-back button for the V. F. W. Loyalty Day Parade in Middletown, Conn. in 1974. Button has a white background with blue text. In the center is an American flag. (.160) Pin-back button for the North Haven Schools Drum Corps in 1966. Button has a white background with a green border with yellow and black text. In the center is an image of the state of Connecticut in front of a drum. (.161) Pin-back button for the Washington Park Drum Corps in Meriden Conn. in 1968. Button has a white background with a red border with white and blue text. In the center is a silhouette of George Washington on the left and the state of Connecticut in front of a drum on the right. (.162) Pin-back button for the North Haven Schools Drum

Basic Detail Report

Corps in 1967. Button has a white background with a red border with white and gray text. In the center is an image of the state of Connecticut in front of a drum.

(.163) Pin-back button for the East Hampton Third Connecticut Regiment Fife and Drum Corps in 1974. Button has a white background with red text. In the center is the regimental flag. (.164) Pin-back button for the Deep River Ancient Muster during the Civil War Centennial. Button has a white background with black text. In the center is a marching fife and drum corps. (.165) Pin-back button with ribbons for the Oakville F. D. & B. Corps Field Day in Watertown, Conn. in 1939. Button has a white background with black text. Three ribbons:

blue, white, and red, are suspended from the button.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions ((.155) diameter): 2 1/2in. (6.4cm) Primary Dimensions ((.156) diameter): 1 3/4in. (4.4cm) Primary Dimensions ((.157) diameter): 1 3/4in. (4.4cm) Primary Dimensions ((.158) height x width): 1 1/8 × 2

3/4in. (2.9 × 7cm) Primary Dimensions ((.159) diameter): 2 1/2in. (6.4cm)

Primary Dimensions ((.160) diameter): 3in. (7.6cm) Primary Dimensions ((.161) diameter): 3in. (7.6cm) Primary Dimensions ((.162) diameter): 3in. (7.6cm)

Primary Dimensions ((.163) diameter): 1 3/4in. (4.4cm) Primary Dimensions ((.

164) diameter): 1 3/4in. (4.4cm) Primary Dimensions ((.165) length x diameter): 3

3/4 × 1 1/4in. (9.5 × 3.2cm)