

Basic Detail Report

Title Telephone Building

Date 1944-1945

Description Black and white photograph by Thomas F. Oakes of a London telephone building on the Thames River that was hit by a German V-1 flying bomb. The building is covered by scaffolding with rubble in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions:  $2\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{1}{2}$ in. ( $6.4 \times 6.4$ cm)