

Basic Detail Report

Title Military Camp, 1952-1953

Date 1952-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium Photography

Description A negative strip with images of a military camp during the Korean War, 1952-1953. (.16) Portrait of Edward Rogalski in military uniform standing in a military camp. He is wearing glasses and a watch on his left arm. On the left shoulder of the uniform is the U.S. Army 40th Infantry Division badge, which is a dark blue diamond-shape on which, in yellow, is the sun with 12 rays. Camp tents and buildings are seen in the background. (.17) Portrait of Edward Rogalski in uniform. He poses with his eyes closed in the direction of the sun. (.18) A portrait of a man in uniform. He poses with his thumbs resting in his pant pockets. Camp tents and buildings are seen in the background. (.19) A view of the inside of a military camp tent. One bed sits on the left corner of the back wall while another bed is on the left wall. Within the tent is clothing, luggage, bags, and boots. (.20) A view of two men inside of a military camp tent. The man on the left is sitting at a small wooden table. He is wearing a white tank top, pants, boots, and a watch on his left arm. The other man in a white sleeve top, pants,

Basic Detail Report

and boots is lying down in a bed that is up against the wall. (.21) A close-up image of a bed in a camp tent. On the bed are blankets, clothes, and a steel helmet. To the left of the bed is a table.