AGRICULTURE DIRECTIONAL SIGNS

... DISCOVER CONNECTICUT'S BOUNTY

In Connecticut "we're full of surprises" and Agriculture is no exception. The Department of Agriculture has developed an exciting new program which establishes agricultural signs on state roads directing motorists to the best, "Connecticut Grown," products available.

The signs are of uniform size, symbol, color and lettering with commodity logos identifying what types of products may be purchased. Whether it's fresh strawberries, crisp apples, beautiful flowers or the perfect Christmas tree, your expectations will be more than fulfilled. Signs are placed within 5 miles of the farm so you're never too far from "Connecticut Grown".

As you explore the state of Connecticut, in all its splendor, follow the "Agriculture Directional Sign" for a taste of what Connecticut is serving today.
