Title Ward Cheney (1875-1900) in Uniform

Date 1898 - 1900

Medium Photography: black and white photograph on paper

Description View of Ward Cheney (1875 - 1900) standing outside in a grassy clearing. He is standing with his feet spread apart and his arms behind his back.

Ward is wearing a military uniform, probably the uniform for the First Connecticut Volunteers. It consists of a campaign hat, jacket with pockets, pants, and tall boots. There is part of an awning or canopy visible to the left and there are several tents in the background. The photograph is adhered to a thick piece of gray cardstock. The edges of the cardstock are beveled.
