Title Three Member's of the Temperance Society.

Date 1850-1851

Primary Maker John Frederick Herring II

Medium Lithography; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description The heads of three horses are facing left as they drink water from a stone water trough. The horse on the far left has his mouth in the water. The two horses on the right have raised their heads, and water drips from their mouths in a thin stream. Water flows into the trough through a circular inlet at the left. A vine, possibly ivy, grows on the left. A branch with leaves is in the right foreground.
