

Basic Detail Report

BROWNIE CASTLE, OLDEST HOUSE IN DERBY
Where French Soldiers Were Entertained During War of Revolution

Title Brownie Castle and West Cornwall Bridge

Date mid 20th century

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photomechanical prints; photoengraving, photoetching, and watercolor on wove paper

Description Views of a center chimney saltbox house with louvered shutters and a covered bridge across a stream. A stone wall is in front of the house, and rail fences line the road approaching the bridge. Leafless trees are in both views.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 x 4in. (7.6 x 10.2cm) or smaller Platemark (height x width): 3 x 4 1/4in. (7.6 x 10.8cm) Sheet (height x width): 4 5/16 x 5 1/2in. (11 x 14cm) or smaller